Mission Projects for January and February are: Health Kits for Lutheran World Relief and Hospice/AIDS Kits for Global Health Ministries. At the top of the stairway in the church entry is a basket containing plastic bags to be filled with items for the Health and Hospice/AIDS Kits. Inside each bag is a list of items needed for each kit. Information can also be found on the Women of the ELCA bulletin board downstairs in the hallway by the library entrance.

2012 Youth Gathering Site Announced

Last week on Super Sunday, the announcement of the site/date of the next ELCA Youth Gathering, a ministry that celebrates One whose gift is more than “super” was made. July 18-22, 2012, ELCA youth will gather—again—in New Orleans, not to cheer on the Saints football team, but to stand with the saints of God in that place: the young and the old, the privileged and the uninvited, the lonely and the claimed, the powerful and the shamed, the weak and the strong, those who have built new homes and those still struggling to rebuild.

Why go back? Because New Orleans has more to teach us about fresh starts made possible by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. New Orleans has more to teach us about generosity and about how to be good neighbors. New Orleans has more to teach us about the house that God is building.

Please join us in the summer of 2012 in New Orleans. There is more to be done, and more to learn.

Go to www.elca.org/gathering and become part of the movement, ELCA for NOLA!

Join us.....for coffee

Das 8th grade confirmation class studied about Martin Luther in November. They would like to share 2 skits about Martin Luther with you during coffee hour on...

Family Day:

Home is Church too! The Youth Committee has decided to change things once in a while and follow the proven research. Home (families) is where faith practices should be happening. We at Augustana are a family of believers. The Youth Committee, along with Carole, has planned 1 family day a month. The Hey kids are invited to these events with their families. The Hey kids will not meet separate on Family days.

What is a Family day? One day a month Augustana will gather as an Augustana Family Day. Everyone ALL ages are welcome: Each month we will do something different. This will involve devotion and an activity.

Who's Family?

Definition of a Family: A group of people living together. We live together as family of God at Augustana. That would make us all part of His family.
